

RESUME

DR. PINTU ROY

Designation: Assistant Professor, Department of History

Education Qualification:

1. BA with History Major in 2010, from Bongaigaon College
2. MA in History in 2012 from Gauhati University
3. Cleared SET in History in 2014 (NE SLET Commission)
4. Awarded PhD in 2020 by Gauhati University for the thesis on Bengal Peasantry and India's Partition (1937-47)

Previous Work Experience:

1. Worked as Teacher in History at Happy Convent School (Three Months)
2. Worked as Research Assistant at Indian Council of Historical Research (One Year)
3. Worked as Contractual Assistant Professor in History at Bongaigaon College (One Year)

Paper Published:

1. 'Rewriting the History of Colonial India: A Subaltern Perspective' in Philosophica, Bongaigaon College, Bongaigaon.(2014)
2. 'Locating Bengal Peasantry in India's Partition Historiography' in My Facts, Guwahati, (2014),
3. 'Regionalism in Assam: A Colonial Legacy' in Journal of History and Culture, Gauhati University, Guwahai (2015)
4. 'From Ryotwari to Khelwari: Colonizing Land Revenue in Assam' in Journal of Social Sciences, Bodoland University, Kokrajhar (2015).
5. 'Globalization and Locating the Role of Media in the Changing Scenario of Rural Assam' in Manthan, Tinsukia,(2018).

Chapters in Edited Books:

1. 'Revisiting Partition: Changing Agrarian Structure and Politics in Colonial Bengal' in Rakesh Kumar (ed) Narrating Indian History, Rudra Publishers, New Delhi, (2020).
2. 'Colonial Urbanization and Shift of Agrarian Control in Bengal' in Meeta Deka (ed) Urbanisms in South Asia: Northeast India Outside-In, Primus Books, New Delhi, (2020).
3. 'Colonial Enterprise and Economic Change in Assam' in Phanindra Kalita & Dhanmoni Kalita (eds), Society, Politics and Culture in Assam, Chaygaon College, Guwahati (2015).