One Day Workshop On
Professional Ethics and Its Importance in Higher Education

Resource Person: Dr. Himadri Barman. Assistant Professor, Dibrugarh University

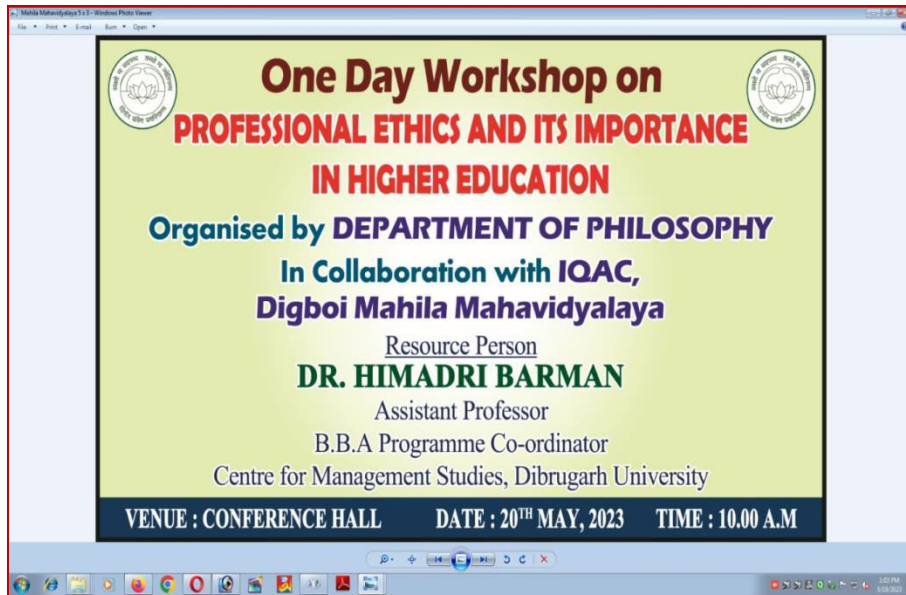

On 20th May 2023 Department of Philosophy and IQAC cell, Digboi Mahila Mahavidyalaya organized a one day workshop on Professional Ethics and its importance in Higher Education. The primary objective of the workshop was to explain the relevance of ethical behavior in the higher education and to address the ethical challenges faced by professionals.

The workshop is arranged in three technical session:

First technical session is arranged for both the teaching and non- teaching staff. In this session Dr. Barman stressed that Professional ethics is very essential for both the teaching and non- teaching staff in higher education for creating a conducive learning environment. Professional ethics involves treating students, colleagues with respect, maintaining confidentiality, avoiding discrimination, displaying integrity and adhering to professional standards. These ethics foster a positive educational experience for all stake- holders.

In the second session only for teaching staff Dr. Barman highlighted on being a professional and ethical educational administrator, requires prioritizing the best interests of students and upholding ethical standards. This involves promoting transparency, fairness and accountability, maintain confidentiality, fostering a positive and inclusive environment and making decisions based on the principle of integrity and equality.

In the third session Dr. Barman discussed about Research Ethics. In his explanation, he reflects that researcher must adhere to fundamental ethical codes to ensure the integrity of their research work. These include obtaining data from authentic resources, avoiding conflicts of interest, accurate findings of reports, respecting the rights and wellbeing of all involved. Upholding these ethical codes is essential for conducting healthy and trustworthy research
